Messages for Parents 2nd November 2018

- We would like to say congratulations to Miss Sayers who got married over the half-term holiday in New York. She is now Mrs Riley and we all wish her a long and happy married life.
- We have noticed that there are some children coming to school on bikes and scooters. This is great in terms of exercise but they cannot be ridden on in the playground as we don't have insurance for them. Please ask your child to walk and push their bike or scooter when they arrive at school. Thank you.
- The week beginning 12th November is Anti-Bullying week. Here at St Wilfrid's we like to call it 'Friendship Week'. The theme this year is RESPECT.
- To ease congestion in the hall we have decided to split KS2 for their Christmas performances. All performances will be at 2.15pm.
